Peconic Landing to Host 8th Annual End of Summer Celebration

GREENPORT, N.Y., August 15, 2019 – Peconic Landing is excited to announce its 8th Annual End of Summer Celebration featuring music and fireworks, taking place on September 1st, the Sunday of Labor Day weekend.

FREE to all, the much-anticipated event attracts hundreds of guests each year, bringing together members, team members and the East End Community. It serves as a thank you for the community's support throughout the year.

"Each year we find that more and more families of the greater community have been joining in on the affair," said Robert J. Syron, President and CEO of Peconic Landing. "This event has become a tradition for Peconic Landing and the community, one that we can share with our neighbors and loved ones."

Join us on Sunday, September 1st at 7 p.m. for a live performance by the forty-member Atlantic Wind Symphony, comprised of musicians from across Long Island. The performance will take place on the patio at Brecknock Hall and feature popular songs by George Gershwin, John Philip Sousa as well as well-known Broadway hits. It will also include a salute to veterans and current service members, as well as recognize police and volunteer fire officials.

The performance is sponsored by the Brecknock Hall Foundation, which has a mission of maintaining the beautification and preservation of the historic mansion and landmark of North Fork history.

Fireworks will take off at 8:15, launched over Peconic Landing's community pond. Guests are asked to bring blankets and chairs to make the most of the event. The 20-minute fireworks show is sponsored by Peconic Landing and displayed by Pyro Engineering of Bethpage, NY.

A rain date is scheduled for September 2nd. Brecknock Hall is located at One Brecknock Road in Greenport. For more information, visit www.peconiclanding.org.
