Peconic Landing Members Donate Art to Thank Their Heroes

GREENPORT, N.Y. – A group of generous and talented members at Peconic Landing have joined forces to donate nearly 50 pieces of artwork to team members in an auction they've titled the Thank You Heroes Art Raffle.

As a token of appreciation for the employees' continuous care and dedication, individuals from Peconic Landing's member-run Art Club put their skills to use and contributed paintings, photographs, and more to the raffle. Outdoor art classes on campus are ongoing, and all members are encouraged to participate and foster their creativity.

From delicate watercolors of North Fork landscapes, to colorful abstract paintings and intricate sketches, the raffle showcases a wide variety of artistic talent. Some members donated other crafted goods including jewelry, ceramics, and hand-knit gifts.

"As a certified Center for Successful Aging, Peconic Landing encourages all of our members to pursue their interests and explore their passions to the highest degree. It is humbling that in this challenging time they have chosen to use their passions to give back to our hardworking team," said Robert J. Syron, President and CEO of Peconic Landing. "We are proud to serve these talented and giving individuals, and their artwork will surely touch the hearts of many."

Each team member at Peconic Landing has been given two raffle tickets to use towards the artwork of their choice, so opportunity and excitement are spread across the campus. The raffle will take place on Friday, October 2nd.
